

Connecticut History Day 2019 New Haven Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: The Black Death: Its Triumphs, Tragedies, and the Effect on the Italian Renaissance

School: Engineering - Science University Magnet School

Student: Leah Mock

Second Place: Mental Institution or Madhouse: What Nellie Bly Revealed

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Rosie Hampson

Third Place: Cracking the Enigma Code: How Alan Turing and Other Cryptanalysts Changed the Course of the Second World War

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Charles Wortman

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: The March 1st Movement: The Cries for Korean Independence

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Marlon Coon and Young In Kim

Second Place: Doctors Without Borders: A Journey to Save Lives

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Sophia Arnaout and Athena Brown

Third Place: Triumph and Tragedy Through the Siege of Leningrad

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Zacchary Edwards and Cassius Morgan Coe

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: Women's Rights

School: Engineering Science University Magnet School

Student: Amber Santiago-Rojas

Second Place: Elizabeth Cady Stanton: Hero or Racist?

School: East Haven Academy

Student: Michelle Bove

Third Place: The Tragedy of The Auschwitz Concentration Camp

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Sebastian Halpern

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: The Hindenburg Disaster of 1937

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Sophia Kang and Sneha Maskey

Second Place: The Atomic Bomb: The Tragedy of Hiroshima and Nagasaki

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Suki Sze and Evelyn Liu

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: Doolittle Did More: The American Military Response to Pearl Harbor

School: Engineering - Science University Magnet School

Student: Elizabeth Nardini

Second Place: The Space Shuttle Challenger Disaster

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Julia Rosado

Third Place: Operation Dynamo: The tragic success of one of the largest evacuations in military history

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Askari Hussain

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: The Stonewall Riots: Tragedy Yet Milestone

School: East Haven Academy

Students: Adrianna Geremia and Jessica Cofrancesco

Second Place: The creation of the atomic bomb

School: Dag Hammarskjold Middle School

Students: Cailin Testa, Anshul Patel, and Rebecca Monteiro

Third Place: The Tragedy Of the Titanic

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Lily Rozenblit and Bruno Massaro

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Amundsen and Scott: The Race for the South Pole

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Magda Lena Griffel

Second Place: The Significance of Triple Entente in World War I

School: Engineering - Science University Magnet School

Student: Snigtha Mohanraj

Third Place: The Bubonic Plague

School: Engineering - Science University Magnet School

Student: Miranda Higbee

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: Malaga Island: How the State of Maine Devastated a Resilient Island Community in the Name of the Greater Good

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Margo Pedersen

Second Place: Willow Run: Women in American Manufacturing and the Home Front During World War II

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Emily Lathers

Third Place: The Marshall Plan: An Economic Triumph, An Ideological Tragedy

School: Hamden Hall Country Day School

Student: Daniel Vash

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: FDR's New Deal: A Triumphant End to a Tragic Time

School: Pomperaug Regional High School

Students: Ryan Sokol, Nathan Holland, and Douglas Muratori

Second Place: The Triumph and Tragedy of OJ Simpson

School: Jonathan Law High School

Students: Lucas Greifzu and Angel Santiago

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: Triumph and Tragedy: The Fight for Public Funding

School: High School in the Community

Student: Airiqa Hoheb

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: The Voyage of Christopher Columbus

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: Maria Lopez and Brandon Inahuazo

Second Place: The Manhattan Project: A Triumph for Science but a Tragedy for History

School: Wilbur Cross High School
Student: Federico Lora and Jason Lampo

Third Place: Baseball Integration

School: East Haven High School
Students: Kyle Hubbel and Ronald Jones

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: From Strife to Success: How the Young Lords Turned Violence Into Nonviolent Activism

School: Wilbur Cross High School
Student: Elijah Baldwin

Second Place: Holocaust: A Catastrophic Tragedy and Triumph

School: Wilbur Cross High School
Student: Daniel Trastsianka

Third Place: The Little Rock Nine Crisis: When Desegregation Strikes

School: East Haven High School
Students: Tyler Griffith

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: Who Plays God? The Tragedy of Medical Drug Trials Using the Placebo Affect

School: Pomperaug Regional High School
Student: Paige Moffat and Cassie Reilly

Second Place: Griswold v CT: A Woman's Day in Court

School: High School In The Community
Student: Hallie Hushion, Johanyx Rodriguez, Shakshi Patel, and Jeinylee Salame

Third Place: The Tragedy and Triumph Smallpox & Inoculation

School: High School In The Community
Student: Tyler Sanchez, Saad Ourodjeri, and Anthony Fiore

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: The Freedom Summer

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Nahjae Petty

Second Place: 1992 Los Angeles Riots

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Imari Lucky

Third Place: Nicaraguan Revolution

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Natalia Padilla