

Connecticut History Day 2018 Fairfield Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: Caroline Ferriday

School: Fairfield Woods Middle School

Student: Lily Bolash

Second Place: Becoming Death: The Manhattan Project

School: Bristow Middle School

Student: Eashwar Hari

Third Place: The Berlin Conference: A Study of Imperialism in Africa

School: Madison Middle School

Student: Kurtis Bleakley

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: The Untold Story of the Ravensbrück Rabbits

School: The Unquowa School

Students: Brandon Faunce and Sophia Kessler

Second Place: The WASPs of World War II

School: West Shore Middle School

Students: Amanda Tyimok and Molly Reed

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: Kent State: American Values in Conflict

School: The Unquowa School

Student: Kelly Jones

Second Place: The History of the Alamo

School: The Unquowa School

Student: Adriana Giachino

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: Loving v Virginia

School: Bedford Middle School

Students: Oliver Clachko, Eli Shorrocks, Alex Markus-Malone, and Liam Kelly

Second Place: PT Barnum: The Conflicts and Compromises of Someone Who is more than a Showman

School: Hillcrest Middle School

Students: Hannah Shairer, Megan Smith, Ally Shairer, Sarah Green

Third Place: Japanese Internment in WWII

School: West Shore Middle School

Students: Zachary Moller, Alex Landino

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: A First Step Toward Equality: Booker T. Washington's Atlanta Compromise

School: The Unquowa School

Student: Sneha Sunder

Second Place: From Sacrifice To Suffrage

School: Fairfield Woods Middle School

Student: Lauren Ji

Third Place: The Yalta Conference: The Compromises That Lead to Conflicts

School: Tomlinson Middle School

Student: Evan Papageorge

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: Connecticut Witch Trials

School: New Beginnings Family Academy

Students: Nyanna Richards, Brianna Lopez, and Joshua Fordham

Second Place: "I am become Death, the destroyer of worlds": Cuban Missile Crisis, 1962

School: Bedford Middle School

Students: Ishan Prasad, Finnbar Kiely, Peter Moody, Zachary Rybchin, and Maxwell Tanksley

Third Place: How the Treaty of Versailles Ended the Great War

School: Bedford Middle School

Students: Johann Kobetitsch, Lyah Muktavaram, Jason Chio-Skow, and Jordan Chiu-Ckow

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Eva Braun

School: Madison Middle School

Student: Mia Egmont

Second Place: Korean War: A Bitter Conflict and the Tension That Arose

School: Bedford Middle School

Student: Evan Trock

Third Place: Constance Baker Motley: Refusing to Compromise on Human Rights

School: New Beginnings Family Academy

Student: Jada Taylor

Category: Junior Group Performance

First Place: "From Sea to Shining Sea": The Conflict over the Fort Laramie Treaties that Compromised American Values

School: Pequot Homeschool

Students: Brooks Barry, Liv Bobby, Andre Mead, Sebastian Zuba

Second Place: When there is a Will, There Is a Way: Avoiding Conflict in the San Juan Pig War of 1859

School: Hillcrest Middle School

Students: Katie DeRose, Pranav Kodakara, Brad Larson, Omari Senior, and Jonathan Williams

Third Place: The Cuban Missile Crisis: Compromise Between Superpowers to Prevent Nuclear War

School: Memorial Middle School

Students: Smarth Keerthivasan, Travis Falk, Michael Zarif, Adam Zarif, and Jack Funk

Category: Junior Individual Performance

First Place: The Newsies Strike of 1899

School: Bedford Middle School

Student: Thomas Sargent

Second Place: The Dead Rabbit Riot: Voices From Both Sides

School: Bristow Middle School

Student: Daisy Plocharczyk

Third Place: Marbury v. Madison: The Artful Compromise that Established the Power of the Constitution Through the Conflict Between the Judicial and Executive Branches

School: Hillcrest Middle School

Student: Neya Kidambi

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: Conflict and Compromise of Reconstruction; the Freedmen's Bureau and Compromise of 1877

School: Staples High School

Student: Benjamin Schussheim

Second Place: A Tale of Two Isaacs: The Conflict and Compromise between Isaac Mayer Wise and Isaac Leeser

School: Academy of Information Technology and Engineering

Student: Joshua Lefermam

Third Place: School Desegregation in Hartford, Connecticut: The Challenges of Implementation and Reform

School: Academy of Information Technology and Engineering

Student: Donia Elmansy

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: "The Week that Changed the World": Nixon's Trip to China

School: Weston High School

Students: Beck Reiferson and David Tamburri

Second Place: Salem Witch Trials: How the Small Community of Salem Scapegoated Innocent Victims

School: Staples High School

Students: Kelley Schutte, Alexa Frost, and Ava Geismann

Third Place: Athlete Protests: How Two Fists Sparked Conflict That Challenged Racial Injustice Without Compromise

School: Staples High School

Students: Ethan Frank, Graydon Narang, Max Iannone

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: Sefardi

School: Amity High School

Student: Sam Farbman

Second Place: Don't Get Hit: 9/11 and the expansion of US intelligence power; the conflict between safety and liberty

School: Staples High School

Student: Victor de la Pena

Third Place: The Space Race: How Conflict on Earth Composed the Dominion of SPACE

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Liam Brinton

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: Athletic Social Activism: Exposing Barriers, Promoting Equality, Initiating Change

School: Staples High School

Students: Brianna Dwyer and Sophia Alfero

Second Place: The Chinese Exclusion Act: Political Conflict With Little Compromise in 1882

School: Staples High School

Student: Jaden Little, Charlie Steele

Third Place: Nike Missile Sites: the National Security Measure that Sparked Conflict and Compromise

School: Staples High School

Students: Kathryn Enquist and Shea Curran

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: The New York Draft Riots of 1863: A Compound Conflict Culminating in Chaos without Victory

School: Staples High School

Student: Maximus Pace

Second Place: Patsy Mink and Title IX: A Journey of Conflict and Refusal to Compromise

School: Staples High School

Student: Ava Sholes

Third Place: The Nullification Crisis: A compromise with the Government after a Voided Tariff by South Carolina

School: Staples High School

Student: Philip De Munck

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: “A Nation that destroys its soil destroy itself”: Defoliants of the Vietnam War

School: Staples High School

Students: Nick Taubenheim and Aydan Moskowitz

Second Place: Greenwich Women Face the Great War

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Sydney Harris and Sophia Fernandez

Third Place: The Weight of History: A Systematic Approach to Analyzing Public Opinion of Historical Figures

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Bennet Hawley, Jacqueline Cochran, Renata Malyshev, and Gabriel Quiroga

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Iranian Hostage Crisis: The Revolutionaries Refusal to Compromise with America

School: Staples High School

Student: Emerson Anvari

Second Place: Los Angeles Race Riots of 1992: A city's conflict and comprise

School: Staples High School

Student: Sam Maged

Third Place: Jackie Robinson: His Conflict and Compromise to Succeed in Integrating Baseball

School: Staples High School

Student: Maise Prince

Category: Senior Group Performance

First Place: Barbara McClintock: Jumping Over Conflict and Creating Compromise to Expand the Knowledge of the Genome

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Katherine Hurst, Flora Dievenich Braes, Nicole Wood, and Sofia Dodaro

Second Place: Society's Compromise is a Whole New Crime: The Rape of Recy Taylor

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Jody Bell, Sophie Anderlind, and Nina Hirai

Third Place: The Questions We Didn't Ask, The Stories They Didn't Tell: How Equality and Identity Were Compromised Under 'Don't Ask, Don't Tell'

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Ariana Ceppi and Gracie McCooe

Category: Senior Individual Performance

First Place: The Pentagon Papers: An Inner Conflict, An External Compromise in American Values

School: Greenwich High School

Student: Emma Olmstead

Second Place: The Newsboys' Strike of 1899: Conflict & Compromise Makes News

School: Staples High School

Student: Carly Dwyer