

Dear History Day Educator,

Introducing History Day in Connecticut to your students? Need some help? Here are four resources:

- Book a FREE History Day 101 Outreach Workshop. Staff from Connecticut's Old State House will come to your class and introduce the History Day program during this 45-minute program. Book now at HistoryDay@cga.ct.gov!
- Go Local at the Hartford History Center! Archivists at the Center are anxious to work with your students and share the Center's rich historical resources. Book a History Day Research Workshop before you visit. Contact the Hartford History Center at Hartford Public Library at 860-695-6297 or hhc@hplct.org. Please note that some travel scholarship funds MAY be available on a first come, first served basis.
- Need help teaching research methods? Schedule a workshop with the Connecticut Historical Society! CHS offers two outreach workshops (Research Methods and Introduction to Primary Sources) and an onsite Research Methods Workshop at the museum. Fees apply to all workshops. For more information contact education\_assistant@chs.org or (860) 236-5621 x232!
- Contact Connecticut Explored, the magazine of CT history, to get 10 free issues! Magazine editors have put together a History Day 10-pack for teachers! Filled with potential Connecticut topic ideas, you will receive 10 issues (a $60 value) for free. There is a $10 fee for postage. To order your packet, contact: marydonohue@comcast.net. Ask about CT Explored's special educators subscription rate!

Please let us know if you need a 2015 National History Rule Book or Theme Book!

Best,

Rebecca
