

Connecticut History Day 2019 Hartford Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: A Lasting Legacy: The Triumph and Tragedy of the Chicago Columbian Exposition of 1893

School: Sedgwick Middle School
Student: Avery Bloom

Second Place: The Smith Sisters and Property Rights

School: Capital Preparatory Magnet School
Student: Nyra Braxton

Third Place: The Treaty of Versailles

School: House of Arts Letters and Science (HALS) Academy
Student: Laiba Jalil

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: British Raid on Essex

School: Bristow Middle School
Students: Jack Lovejoy and Grant Walters

Second Place: The Triumphs and Tragedies Surrounding Stan Lee

School: House of Arts Letters and Science (HALS) Academy
Students: Joshua Cruz and Ronald Knapp

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: Marie Curie - Radiating the Future

School: Talcott Mountain Academy
Student: T.Y. Andrews

Second Place: Indian Removal Act: A Tragedy within Jackson's triumph

School: Renzulli Gifted and Talented Academy
Student: Danielle James

Third Place: The Dreamer Who Never Gave Up: The Nelson Mandela Story

School: Talcott Mountain Academy

Student: Anishka Perera

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: The Treaty of Versailles

School: House of Arts Letters and Science (HALS) Academy

Students: Niaunna Xayavong, Kelly-Alice Alape, Noah Cosme, and Abby Wasik

Second Place: Atomic Bomb

School: Academy of Science and Innovation

Students: Claire Fresher, Anna Maria Tippner, Josiah Telles, and Nicolas Tippner

Third Place: Black History

School: Academy of Science and Innovation

Students: Kyle Swaby, Lucas Beloff, Chieme Ezegbo, and David Slotter

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: Julius Rosenwald: The Invisible Guardian

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Grace Wentland

Second Place: Evolution of Energy: Triumph Laced with Tragedy

School: Thatcher Slocum

Student: Sedgwick Middle School

Third Place: The Danbury Shakes; Poisoned Industry and Ruined Lives that Prompted Workplace Reform

School: House of Arts Letters and Science (HALS) Academy

Student: Daniel Torres

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: Who Is the Mystery Girl? Dido Elizabeth Belle and How She Helped To Abolish Slavery

School: St. Timothy Middle School

Students: Eva Mocchiolo and Annabel Probolus

Second Place: Tragedy and Triumph: London Fire of 1666

School: Renzulli Gifted and Talented Academy

Students: Cesar Canedo, Alano Oquendo, and Anthony Lessor

Third Place: A Triumphant Treaty and a Tragic War

School: House of Arts Letters and Science (HALS) Academy

Students: Arthur Sanchez, Maya Kelly, and Adriana Gutowska

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Bringing Triumphant Light to Tragic Darkness: Alice Hamilton, the Radium Girls and Workplace Safety for All

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Claire Flynn

Second Place: The Tragic Blizzard of 1888: Innovating America's Underground Transportation

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Kate Maglio

Third Place: The Atomic Bomb: A Scientific Triumph Leads to Tragedy

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Sofia Levesque

Category: Junior Group Performance

First Place: Paying a Price for Education

School: Montessori Magnet School

Students: Saoirse Noyes, Walter Vallecillo, McKenna Semeraro, Marlon Vallecillo, and Luis Nunez

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: Unit 731: The Forgotten Tragedy of World War II

School: Conard High School

Student: Ryan Lafferty

Second Place: Misinformation, Public Opinion, and the Lynching of Leo Frank

School: Greater Hartford Academy of the Arts High School

Student: Grace Englehart

Third Place: The Puritans

School: Farmington High School

Student: Liam Hemingway

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: The Tragic Faces Behind Masks of World War I and Their Impact on Modern Day Medical Advancements

School: Ellington High School

Students: Hunter Avtges and Samantha Kearney

Second Place: Tupac Shakur: Overcoming Adversity to Transform the Music Industry

School: Ellington High School

Students: Alex Maningas, James Sternat, and Gavin Laughlan

Third Place: Jimmy Carter: The America We Know

School: Farmington High School

Students: Pei Chao Zhuo and Pei Yi Zhuo

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: The Fight for Democracy: Alice Paul & The Suffragette Movement

School: Farmington High School

Student: Veena Kodakirathi

Second Place: The Hoover Dam: Inspiring a Nation and Inciting Growth

School: Conard High School

Student: Andrew Maglio

Third Place: Kurt Cobain: The Tragic End to a Revolutionary Musician

School: Ellington High School

Students: Autumn Colburn

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: Marie Curie: Revolutionizing Science Despite Tragedy

School: Ellington High School

Students: Katelin Johndrow, Allison Essig, and Sophia Walker

Second Place: The Nine Who Overcame Racial Biases and Barriers to Challenge America

School: Ellington High School

Student: Jacob Sirica, Lauren Johnson, and Nora Birmingham

Third Place: The Restoration of London

School: New Britain High School

Students: Martha Atakora and Isabella Testanero

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: The Reconstruction Amendments: A Cycle of Triumph and Tragedy

School: Conard High School

Student: Ethan Mathieu

Second Place: Jim Jones: From Savior to Sinner

School: Ellington High School

Student: Siena Rosato

Third Place: The Pentagon Papers: A Triumph for Freedom of the Press Born From the Tragedy of the Vietnam Conflict

School: Ellington High School

Student: Drew Thibert

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: Colossus of Rhodes: From Wonder to Ruin of the Ancient World

School: Ellington High School

Students: Audrey Davis, Owen Feindel, and Robert Wehr

Second Place: The Hartford Circus Fire

School: New Britain High School

Students: Marijah Shell-Smith and Isabelle Costa

Third Place: Apollo 13: NASA's Most Successful Failure

School: Ellington High School

Students: Jack Olender, Lauren Martino, Tess Ryan, Matthew Tebbetts, and Emma Gorham

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Pigeons in Peril: How the Extinction of Passenger Pigeons Saved Species

School: Ellington High School

Student: Rayna Bidwell

Second Place: Broken Dreams: African Americans in WWI

School: Conard High School

Student: Brianna Bobo

Third Place: The First Organ Transplant: How One's Demise led to the Salvation of Another

School: Conard High School

Student: Warda Hassan

Category: Senior Group Performance

First Place: "The Day the Clowns Cried": A New Era of Regulation Salvaged from the Ashes of the 1944 Hartford Circus Fire

School: Ellington High School

Students: Cole Angell and Aidan Caron

Second Place: The Zodiac Killer: How the Unresolved Mystery of a Cold-Hearted Killer Led to Triumphs in Forensic Science

School: Ellington High School

Students: Emily Mead, Kylie Elsass, Tessa Sanville, Samantha Curtis, and Alexis Cantin

Third Place: Elvis Presley: A Triumphant Legacy, A Tragic End

School: Ellington High School

Student: Zachary Longo and Nicholas Sivo

Category: Senior Individual Performance

First Place: Turning a Tragedy into a Triumph: Dolley Madison, the War of 1812, and the Creation of a National Identity

School: Conard High School

Student: Lindsay Moynihan

Second Place: John Wilkes Booth: Triumphant Actor to Infamous Assassin

School: Ellington High School

Student: David Desrocher