

Connecticut History Day 2021 New Haven Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: Objective Journalism vs. Patriotic Narrative: How (Mis)Information was Communicated to the American Public during the Tet Offensive of 1968

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Manxi Han

Second Place: Revealing NASA's Hidden History

School: North Haven Middle School

Student: Matthew Campbell

Third Place: The First Transatlantic Telegraph Cable

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Isaac Kleppner

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: The Reindeer Express

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: June Lanpher and Maya Harpaz-Levy

Second Place: Lewis Hine and the Power of Photography

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Eleanor Law and Claire Zenisek

Third Place: Infamy Speech

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Saki Tomita and Suki Sze

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: Morse Code

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Sebastian Bianchine

Second Place: The Power of Student Protest: SNCC's Impact on the Civil Rights Movement

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Saidan Thapa

Third Place: The Sinking of the Titanic

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Celia White

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: Hedy Lamarr and Frequency Hopping

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Bella Brown and Sierra Miller

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: NAWSA, The Fight For Suffrage

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Anna Kim

Second Place: Anne Frank's Diary: The Diary of a Young Girl

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Anna Karatekin Perez

Third Place: The Triangle Shirtwaist Factory Fire

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Molly Weinberg

Category: Junior Group Performance

First Place: Communication Through Deafness: How the American School for the Deaf Changed History

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Clara Causa and Zara Baden-Eversman

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: Breaking the UnBreakable (cracking the enigma code)

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Lily Rozenblit and Chris Van Tassel

Second Place: Propaganda in the Great War: The Allie's Way of Communicating to their People

School: Rochambeau Middle School

Students: Sammy Zackin and Avinaash Thillaikumaran

Third Place: The Miscommunication of the Pearl Harbor Attack

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Giuseppe Festa and Oscar Monahan

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: The Telephone: A Never-Ending Invention

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Nubaid Islam

Second Place: Edith Clarke

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Raisa Ahsan

Third Place: Bletchley Park vs The enigma

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Elliot Peaper

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: Human to Demon: How American Artists and the Government Villianized and Humiliated the Entire Japanese Population

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Charlotte Buterbaugh

Second Place: The 1968 Summer Olympics and the Power of Protest

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Elias Theodore

Third Place: The Tuskegee Experiment: The Purposeful Miscommunication That Created a Tragedy

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Elina Murarka

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: Mistranslations: How One Treaty Led to Decades of Conflict

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: Lily Goren and Lila Kleppner

Second Place: The Salt March: India's March to Independence

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Lena Zenisek and Kelly Fajardo

Third Place: The Camp David Accords: How Jimmy Carter Negotiated Peace Between Two Warring Middle Eastern Countries

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: Young In Kim and Marlon Coon

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: Carrier Pigeons: The Feathered Heroes

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Athena Brown

Second Place: The Lewis and Clark Expedition

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Ai Ling Chow-Yen

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: Charles Dana Gibson and the Gibson Girl - Communicating a new feminine ideal for women in the 1890's

School: Pomperaug Regional High School

Students: Emma Williams and Caroline Parrott

Second Place: The Story of Eleanor Roosevelt and Lorena Hickock: How two women affected communications throughout the world

School: Pomperaug Regional High School

Students: Caitlin Flaherty and Anna Tavoletti

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Rabbits of Ravensbruck: The Story 4 of Incredibly Strong Girls Whose Letters Brought Justice to Those Abused and Killed In A Concentration Camp In Northern Germany

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Lea Trachten

Second Place: Lee Miller: Communicating the Reality of World War II Through Photographs

School: Pomperaug Regional High School

Student: Mary Styblo

Third Place: Spies Who Saved Lives: The Alice Network

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Lorelei Goodall

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: Communicating through Code: Elizabeth Friedman's Crackdown on Nazi Spy Rings during WWII

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: Sneha Maskey and KeQing Tan

Second Place: The Berlin Blockade: Understanding Cold War Espionage

School: Pomperaug Regional High School

Students: Jonah Turner, Michael Tutoli, Owen Broadwater, and Liam Quinn

Third Place: Ida B. Wells: The Journalist Who Paved The Way To Justice

School: Pomperaug Regional High School

Students: Nihitha Nelakudity and Kate Hawn

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: The American Equal Rights Association: Communicating for Equal Rights

School: East Haven High School

Student: Samantha Sarno

Second Place: Psychoanalysis: Sigmund Freud's Communicative Contribution to Psychology

School: East Haven High School

Student: Nicole Latella

Third Place: Los Angeles Riots

School: East Haven High School

Student: Maura Garcia