

Connecticut History Day 2021 Norwich Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: Terry Fox: Marathon of Hope

School: Lyme-Old Lyme Middle School

Students: Simon Karpinski and Kate Walsh

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: Helen Keller: Using Her Voice to Inspire the World

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Student: Lily Jahne

Second Place: Ryan White: Aiding The Fight Against AIDS

School: Lyme-Old Lyme Middle School

Student: Kelly Sheehan

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: Titanic: The Fateful Voyage

School: Lyme-Old Lyme Middle School

Students: Natalie Barndt and Ada LaConti

Second Place: A Letter from Inmate 7089

School: Lyme-Old Lyme Middle School

Students: Olivia Kelly and Kanon Oharu

Third Place: The History of Animal Training

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Students: Jacqueline Goetz and Makenzie Albert

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Keith Haring

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Student: Catherine Tarnowski

Second Place: Advertising and the Ideal Woman

School: Lyme-Old Lyme Middle School

Student: Nola Slubowski

Third Place: Lighthouses: Changing Communication Through a Beam of Light

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Student: Kaelyn Cambi

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: The Notorious RBG: Involvement in Women's Rights

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Students: Sara Evans and Delila Herold

Second Place: Communication in World War 2

School: Haddam-Killingworth Middle School

Students: Collin Green, Jameson Conte, and Chase Insalaco

Third Place: Tear Down This Wall

School: Lyme-Old Lyme Middle School

Students: Andrew Clougherty and Mark Burnham

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: Cave Paintings and their Vital Role in Early Communication

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Students: Elijah Pollock

Second Place: Tulsa Race Massacre

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Student: Sebastian Stricker

Third Place: ASL

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Student: Elyanna Sorey

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: Creation of the Airplane

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Student: Ethan Robinson

Second Place: The Browser War

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Student: Evan Steflik

Senior Division

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: Stories of Slaves: Communication

School: Norwich Free Academy

Students: Aubrey Schies and Molly Plecan

Second Place: The Hollywood Blacklist

School: Norwich Free Academy

Students: Jamie Liang and Amy Carlosviza

Third Place: How the Media Influenced Public Opinion During the Spanish-American War

School: Norwich Free Academy

Students: Rashid Dannett, Cyrus Ayer, and Benjamin Curtis

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: A Man of His Words: The Significance of Lincoln's Speech in Norwich

School: Norwich Free Academy

Student: Ross Blinderman

Second Place: FDR: The Champion of Communication

School: Norwich Free Academy

Student: Cooper Way

Third Place: The Antiwar Demonstrations: The Key to Understanding the Protests that Shaped a Generation

School: Robert E. Fitch High School

Students: Mary Clarke

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: The Role of Navajo Code Talkers in World War II

School: Norwich Free Academy

Students: Katherine Peter and Kaleigh Andrew

Second Place: Communication Throughout History: Native American Navajo Art

School: Norwich Free Academy

Students: Caitlin Daley and Paige Raposo

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: The Hartford Courant: Communication from 1764-2000

School: Robert E. Fitch High School

Student: FJackson Kramer

Second Place: Food Safety: Communications Between the Government and The People

School: Norwich Free Academy

Student: Shayla Roche

Third Place: Propaganda

School: Norwich Free Academy

Student: Pailin Dietz

Category: Senior Group Performance

First Place: Was Communication to Blame for the Tragedy of the Salem Witch Trials

School: Norwich Free Academy

Students: Lily O'Neil and Hannah Lin

Second Place: Letters Between Abigail and John Adams that Contributed to Early Feminism

School: Norwich Free Academy

Students: Avery Dauplaise and Janelle Armentia

Category: Senior Individual Performance

First Place: The Williams' Diaries: Letters to the Homefront

School: Norwich Free Academy

Student: Emily Bartoshevich

Second Place: Space Communication

School: Pine Point School

Student: Peter Wronowski

Third Place: Yellow Journalism: How it Changed How We view the News Forever

School: Pine Point School

Student: Rory Hutchins

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: Protests: The Language of the Unheard

School: Norwich Free Academy

Students: Cynthia Deneus and Maya Chmielewska

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: The Abolitionist Committee: How Slavery was Ended in the UK

School: Lyme-Old Lyme High School

Student: Agatha Hunt

Second Place: The First Presidential Debates

School: Norwich Free Academy

Student: Samantha Davey

Third Place: The Impact of the Signal Corps on the Civil War

School: Norwich Free Academy

Student: Matthew Hendsch

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: Radio Killed the Communist Star: How Radio Free Europe Ended the Communist Dictatorships of Eastern Europe, 1989-1990

School: Stonington High School

Student: Dante DiMartino-Hart

Second Place: The Complexities of Communicating Emancipation

School: Norwich Free Academy

Student: Christopher Dooley

Third Place: The Communication of the Black Panther Party

School: Norwich Free Academy

Student: Gillian Cameron