

Connecticut History Day 2022 Hartford Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: Burning A Path To The 19th Amendment

School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School

Student: Evelyn Huelin

Second Place: Colin Kaepernick vs The NFL

School: ACES@Chase Middle School

Student: Kaiera Maha

Third Place: Connecticut Eugenics

School: Classical Magnet School

Student: Zulai Machin-Rivera

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: Berlin Divided: The Story of Short-lived Diplomacy and Ceaseless Debate

School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School

Students: Isha Shenoy and Kriti Jaladurgam

Second Place: The Hartford Riots: The Black and Latino Struggle in the 1960s

School: Classical Magnet School

Students: Suheily Hernandez and Vanessa Agymang

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: When Billie Beat Bobby: How the Diplomatic 1973 Battle of the Sexes Match Assisted the Ongoing Women's Liberation Debate, Transcended the Stereotypes of the Time Period, and Successfully Advanced Women to a Pedestal Closer to Men

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Julianna Farquharson

Second Place: Should the USA have Gone to the 1936 Olympics During the Rise of the Nazi Regime?

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Conrad Kalke

Third Place: The Chinese Apprehensive Alliance; From Adversaries to Allies and Back Again

School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School

Student: Ferran Ruiz

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: The Lincoln-Douglas Debates - How Failure Turned to Success

School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School

Students: Riley Corcoran and Mikela Dedndreaj

Second Place: Debating Women's Rights

School: Renzulli Gifted and Talented Academy

Students: Amaris Derosia, Adrianna Walton, and Aniyah Simone Mendes

Third Place: SALT: Strategic Arms Limitation Talks

School: Renzulli Gifted and Talented Academy

Students: Zihao R. Zhou and Jackson Miller

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: The Korean War: Causes, Viewpoints, and Effects

School: Renzulli Gifted and Talented Academy

Student: Dorian August Ciscel

Second Place: Generation Gap: The Decision to Prosecute Civil Rights-Era Cold Cases

School: Watkinson School

Student: Cooper Megown

Third Place: La Amistad: Debate and Diplomacy

School: Praise, Power and Prayer Christian School

Student: Josiah McMahan

Category: Junior Individual Performance

First Place: Estelle Griswold: Debating the Past for the Future of Women's Healthcare Rights

School: Bristow Middle School

Student: Elenor Farquhar

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: The Space Race: The Contest to Control the Cosmos

School: Bristow Middle School

Students: Zach Debin, Kieran Scully, and Nathaniel Weiner

Second Place: Mexican-American War

School: ACES@Chase Middle School

Students: Nora Seabourne, Ruby LaFlamme, and Eternity Lynch

Third Place: Japanese Relocation in WWII

School: ACES@Chase Middle School

Students: DaShawn Salyers and Judith Morales

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: Connecticut Compromise: Fair Representation For All?

School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School

Student: Michael Murtagh

Second Place: "The One and Done Rule"

School: ACES@Chase Middle School

Student: Marquarius Mebane

Third Place: The Armenian Genocide

School: ACES@Chase Middle School

Student: Cindy Sanchez

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: Plants for Peace: Botanical Cosmopolitanism, Plant Quarantine Policy and American Diplomacy, 1898-1919

School: Conard High School

Student: Andrew Maglio

Second Place: The Munich Agreement: Start of the Nazi Era

School: South Windsor High School

Student: Marishka Patel

Third Place: The never-ending debate; Roe V. Wade

School: Classical Magnet School

Student: Jaanai Winn

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: The Debate of Hiroshima Atomic Bombing

School: Ellington High School

Students: Allyson Currier, Sydney Matz, and Ava Powell

Second Place: Mahad Satyagraha: Protesting for Rights in a Caste Based Country

School: Ellington High School

Students: Daris Pon Mohan Kumar and Sivasree Nagavarapu

Third Place: Social Media's Effect on Debate and Diplomacy

School: South Windsor High School

Students: Olivia Liegl and Jahnvi Vadavalli

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: The Cuban Missile Crisis: A Lesson to Learn from those Thirteen Days

School: Ellington High School

Student: Gabriel Simon

Second Place: Monkey to Man: How the Scopes Trial Sparked Widespread Debate and Influenced the American Classroom

School: Conard High School

Student: Daphne Brewer

Third Place: Ending the Troubles with Diplomatic Debate: How the Mitchell Principles paved the way towards lasting peace in Northern Ireland

School: Conard High School

Student: Claire Flynn

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: The 1968 Olympics: Controversy Surrounding Athletic Activism

School: Ellington High School

Students: Damian Smith, Aidan Ladr, Olivia Tebbetts, and Natalie Kiessling

Second Place: Elvis Presley: Is he the Devil in Disguise?

School: Ellington High School

Students: Melissa Ryan, Cassondra Rice, and Lauren Sardinha

Third Place: Save the Elephants: Richard Leakey fight for reform in poaching in ivory trade

School: Ellington High School

Students: Laurel Feindel and Piper Gerhauser

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: The 1989 Exxon Valdez Oil Spill

School: Miss Porter's School

Student: Elle Lansing

Second Place: Desmond Doss: The Unlikely War Hero

School: Ellington High School

Student: Ava Wilson

Third Place: Sports Diplomacy: 1988 the Seoul Olympics

School: Miss Porter's School

Student: Tabitha Elliott

Category: Senior Group Performance

First Place: The Concerned Relatives of Jonestown: A Preventable Massacre

School: Ellington High School

Students: Fiona Armstrong, Jack Sprague, Emma Van Tassel, and Nailah Zahedi

Second Place: Leading Ladies of the ERA Movement

School: Ellington High School

Students: Avery Dwyer and Ella Carvell

Category: Senior Individual Performance

First Place: Public Diplomacy in the Debate Between Capitalism and Communism

School: South Windsor High School

Student: Iniya Raja

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: Galileo: A Scientist Ahead of His Times

School: Ellington High School

Students: Shayla Regan, Ana Lundberg, Anna Guerette, and Samantha Norton

Second Place: Jacqueline Cochran: The Fight for Women Aviators in the Military

School: Ellington High School

Students: Natalie Marshall and Nadia Zaffanella

Third Place: The Constitutional Convention: Compromise Through Debate

School: South Windsor High School

Students: Matthew Bullock, Jason Sigler, and Michael Wills

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: Crawling for Change: The Struggle to Pass the ADA

School: Ellington High School

Student: Jonathan Paton

Second Place: The Stonewall Riots

School: Ellington High School

Student: Anna Olender

Third Place: Exploring the Motives for the Hiroshima and Nagasaki Bombings

School: South Windsor High School

Student: Emily Ledger