

Connecticut History Day 2022 New Haven Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: Divergent Paths: How the Japanese Exclusion Act of 1924 Transformed the Debate on U.S.-Japan Relations

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Manxi Han

Second Place: Concorde: Success, Debate, then Failure - A Controversial Past and a Promising Future: How Circumstances Led to the Fall of the Most Successful Supersonic Plane

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Henry Mead

Third Place: Choosing Sides: The Lincoln-Douglas Debates, Slavery, and the Making of Modern America

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Azalea Deener

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: The Start of the Nuclear Age-The Bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: James Hunter and Oliver Hadler

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: I can neither confirm nor deny the title of this documentary.

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Sebastian Bianchine

Second Place: State rights

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Turner Bowles

Third Place: The Patching of Rwanda

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Gabriel Forstrom

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: Twin Studies in Nature Vs. Nurture: What Makes You, You?

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Anna Kim and Willow Oliveira

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: The Great Debates of 1858

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Timothy Edwards

Second Place: Will Their Rising Voices Hurt Our Own: The Balance between Free Speech and our Reputations

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Emi Onorato

Category: Junior Group Performance

First Place: Woman's 19th

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Nadia Cantonwine, Anna Muench-Nasrallah, Iris Baden-Eversman, and Mariana De La Cruz

Second Place: Woman Suffrage

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Saniah Schumacher and Aliyah Bright

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: Controversy Surrounding the Israel-Palestine Separation of 1947

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Maya Harpaz-Levy and Raisa Ahsan

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: Cuban Missile Crisis

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Robert Huang

Second Place: The Treaty of Versailles: A Twenty Year Ceasefire

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Nicholas Rozenblit

Third Place: Silent Spring and the Perspective on Pesticides

School: Worthington Hooker School

Student: Alethea Dinkler

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: The Complex Legacy of the Iran Hostage Crisis

School: Engineering-Science University Magnet School

Student: Lucina O'Brien

Second Place: Army Alpha: The Unintended Consequences of the Implementation of Intelligence Testing in the United States Military

School: Choate Rosemary Hall

Student: Jeff Kim

Third Place: The Fight for Reproductive Rights

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Jaylen Bennett

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: The Treaty of Versailles: A Treaty Made to Target Germany or Post World-War Problems?

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Tania Cruz

Second Place: The Compromise of 1877: A Failed Promise

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Cassius Morgan Coe

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: Clare Boothe Luce

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: Charlotte Gorry and Marcia Colten

Second Place: Frank Kameny; Morally Debating the Gay Rights Movement

School: Pomperaug Regional High School

Students: Nihitha Nelakudity and Kate Hawn

Category: Senior Group Performance

First Place: Debate, Defeat, and the Legacy of a Dream: The 1831 Proposed Black College in New Haven

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: Elias Theodore and Lily Goren

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: The Secret War

School: East Haven High School

Student: Christy Phimmavong

Second Place: Claude Monet and the Impressionists Cause Debate

School: East Haven High School

Student: Alicia Prete

Third Place: The Discovery of Anesthesia

School: East Haven High School

Student: Widman Vicuna