

Connecticut History Day 2017 Fairfield Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: The White Rose: Standing up to Hitler

School: Roger Ludlowe Middle School

Student: Ewan Dignon

Second Place: Rachel Carson Cared

School: Home School

Student: Katerina Anikeev

Third Place: Stowe's Stand against Slavery

School: Academy at Little River

Student: Halle Hunt

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: Desmond Doss: The Hero of WW2 Without a Weapon

School: Bedford Middle School

Students: William Matar, Lucas Lieberman

Second Place: Edward Snowden

School: West Shore Middle School

Students: Angel Santiago, Lucas Greifzu

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: Taking a Stand: John Paul II, Poland and the Power of One Idea

School: Saint Aloysius School

Student: Helen Mahoney

Second Place: Best Friends: Taking a Stand to Save Companion Animals

School: Talcott Mountain Academy

Student: Sarah Azrin

Third Place: Malala Yousafzai: Taking a Stand for World Education

School: The Unquowa School

Student: Brooke Jones

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: Science and Religion: Galileo Taking a Stand Against The Church

School: Rochambeau Middle School

Students: Triloshan Thillaikumaran, Joelle Beck

Second Place: The little lady who wrote the book that changed the world

School: Hillcrest Middle School

Students: Hannah Shairer, Megan Smith, Ally Shairer

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: Tearing Down the Berlin Wall: The Revolution to Break the "Iron Curtain"

School: The Unquowa School

Student: Sneha Sunder

Second Place: The American Reich

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Braden Flowers

Third Place: Thomas Nast: A New Way of Muckraking

School: Madison Middle School

Student: Tej Yalamanchili

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: The Astor Place Riots: Taking A Stand Against Social Discrimination

School: Madison Middle School

Students: Supriya Ganti, Sona Kocinsky

Second Place: Muckrakers in the Progressive Era

School: Madison Middle School

Students: Ella Fujimori, Vanshika Gupta, Erin Melia, Ina Rahalkar

Third Place: Claudette Colvin: The Forgotten Match Responsible for Sparking the Civil Rights Movement

School: Bedford Middle School

Students: Konur Nordberg, Daniel Rosenkranz, Justin Lessing, Anna Hill, Preston Rainey

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: John Muir

School: Tomlinson Middle School

Student: Eric Young

Second Place: How a determined figure rose through the boulders of hardships of South Africa for rights that are deserved by All

School: Bedford Middle School

Student: Charlotte Armstrong

Third Place: Object Anyways: Discrimination, Peremptory Challenges, and the Batson Rule

School: Bedford Middle School

Student: Claire Hanley

Category: Junior Group Performance

First Place: Eglantyne Jebb: From Prison to Power, A History of Children's Rights

School: Roger Ludlowe Middle School

Students: Rose Elizabeth Luczaj, Allie Neugebauer, Colleen Cooke, Rose Linkasamy, Caroline Anne Coccaro

Second Place: Standing Women: A Scientific Turning Point

School: Hillcrest Middle School

Students: Katie DeRose, Molly Mellinger, Morgan Klepack

Category: Junior Individual Performance

First Place: One Child's Stand: The Children's March to Victory 1963

School: The Unquowa School

Student: Samantha Renzulli

Second Place: The Stonewall Riots: America's Coming Out Story

School: Bedford Middle School

Student: Shea Baker

Third Place: Harriet Tubman: Defying the Odds

School: Hillcrest Middle School

Student: Chelsea Morton

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: Nellie Bly: Taking a Stand For Women and the Mentally Ill

School: Staples High School

Student: Nicholas Daines

Second Place: Aaron Burr: American Traitor or Loyalist?

School: AITE

Student: Andrew Branson

Third Place: A Panther of a Different Color: Warren Kimbro's Revolutionary Defiance

School: AITE

Student: Alex Graf

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: The Attica Prison Riot: Violent Conflict on the Frontline of the American Penal System

School: Weston High School

Students: Brendan Moore, David Tamburri, Beck Reiferson

Second Place: John Lennon

School: Staples High School

Students: Amanda Samuels, Kristina Ludel, Sydney Panzer

Third Place: "What Damage We Can": Taking a Stand Against Imperial Japan

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Jake Karetsky, Sara Stober, Catherine Veronis, Bennett Tiedy

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: Pantsuit power: How Pantsuits Changed the Role of Women in Politics

School: Weston High School

Student: Grace Milliman

Second Place: María Sanchez: Taking a Stand For Bilingual Education

School: Greenwich High School

Student: Kathryn Papas

Third Place: Frances Marion - Feminism

School: Staples High School

Students: Isabella Bullock

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: One Couple's Dream to 5 Million: Using Science to Enhance Reproduction

School: Staples High School

Students: Kate Miller, Samantha Levin

Second Place: For Justice, She Stands: Alice Paul

School: Staples High School

Student: Seren Becker, Julie Raigosa

Third Place: NWA: Taking a Stand

School: Staples High School

Students: David Adipietro, Jake Greenwald, Ben Kurtz

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: Ralph Carr: A Politician's Fight for Japanese American Rights During World War II

School: Greenwich High School

Student: Michelle Xiong

Second Place: A Flower in Television's Vast Wasteland: Sesame Street as a Revolutionary Tool in Shaping a Smarter Kinder World

School: Staples High School

Student: Biz Fay

Third Place: Stonewall Inn Riots: Beginning of the LGBT Movement

School: Staples High School

Student: Evan Shorrock

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: A Snap Shot in the dark: Photojournalist Lynsey Addario's Journey to Bring Justice to the Victimized Populations of the World

School: Staples High School

Students: Kayla Sirlin, Paige Anderson

Second Place: Mad Women: Gender in the Workplace in the '60s and Beyond

School: Wilton High School

Students: Perry J. Seelert, Skyler Addison

Third Place: Giving Birth to a New Olympics: Alice Milliat's Fight for Female Inclusion in the Olympics

School: Staples High School

Students: Eloise Pieper, Libby Murray

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Extra Extra: Charlotta Spears Bass, a civil Rights crusader

School: Staples High School

Student: Isabella Jagenberg

Second Place: Irene Gut Opdeyke

School: Staples High School

Student: Olivia Macior

Third Place: Eleanor Roosevelt: There's More to My Day

School: Staples High School

Student: Zoe Barnett

Category: Senior Group Performance

First Place: Women of Solidarity: Taking a Stand for Polish Freedom

School: Pequot Homeschool

Students: Quinn Barry, Shannon Madden, Elena Gonzalez, Fiona Hall

Second Place: Constance Baker Motley: Standing With The Civil Rights Movement to Win the Case for Equality

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Katherine Hurst, Nicole Wood, Flora Dievenich Braes, Sofia Dodaro

Third Place: Virginia Hall: The Limping Lady of World War II

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Sophie Anderlind, Jody Bell, Ben Wolff

Category: Senior Individual Performance

First Place: "Let Us Not Go Like Sheep to the Slaughter": The Jewish Resistance Movement During the Holocaust

School: Staples High School

Student: James Gikas

Second Place: The Power of Music in the Civil Rights Movement

School: Wilton High School

Student: Finn Maloney

Third Place: Washington's Spies: The Revolutionary Culper Ring

School: Stratford High School

Students: Tyler Heffern