

Connecticut History Day 2020 Hartford Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: Elizabeth Cady Stanton – One Woman Can Make A Difference

School: Thomas Edison Magnet Middle School

Student: Mia Vargas

Second Place: The Long-Lasting Legacy of Elizabeth Cady Stanton

School: House of Arts Letters and Science (HALS) Academy

Student: Laiba Jalil

Third Place: Charlie Sifford Changing the World of Golf

School: Northeast Middle School

Student: Peyton Hasler

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: Mother Ella

School: Montessori Magnet School

Students: Nasir Mitchell, Grace Perez, Caden Weatherspoon, Sicily Rose

Second Place: Anna Louise James: The Unintentional Role Model

School: Haddam-Killingworth Middle School

Students: Vic Munster, Leeha Reddy, Vaishnavi Yalamanchi, Alejandra Morales, Natalie Houlton

Third Place: Karl Benz

School: House of Arts Letters and Science (HALS) Academy

Students: Priscilla Rivera and Patrick Clements-Dolan

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: No One Told Her Ladies Shouldn't Work: Elizabeth Colt Breaking Gender Barriers

School: St. Timothy Middle School

Student: Annabel Probolus

Second Place: Changing Times and Changing Minds

School: North Haven Middle School

Student: Shen Wan

Third Place: In an Agent of Death, a Lifesaving Medicine: The Discovery of Chemotherapy

School: Madina Academy

Student: Ghita Elamrani

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: Susie King Taylor

School: Thomas Edison Magnet Middle School

Students: Nursena Er and KariahDior Coles

Second Place: Sheff v. O'Neil

School: Thomas Edison Magnet Middle School

Students: Gabriella Bois, Sueha Chowdhury, and Laila Johnson

Third Place: Nina Simone

School: Chippens Hill Middle School

Students: Helena Wright and Paige Ansah

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: Vietnam Refugees: The Sail to Freedom

School: Windsor Locks Middle School

Student: Jayla Pham

Second Place: Jackie Robinson: Breaking Barriers

School: House of Arts Letters and Science (HALS) Academy

Student: Ife Oluborode

Third Place: Jackie Robinson

School: Haddam-Killingworth Middle School

Student: Tyler Gagliardi

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: Solutions Are Really Only Steps Forward; 13th and 14th Amendment Work Towards Equality

School: Haddam-Killingworth Middle School

Students: Quinn Pollack and Madison Moriarty

Second Place: The Wadsworth Atheneum Breaks Barriers of Art for the Public

School: House of Arts and Letters and Science (HALS) Academy

Students: Deana Sims and Mary Petrisko

Third Place: Title IX: Breaking Gender Barriers in Sports

School: Windsor Locks Middle School

Students: Kevin Mullaney and Oberg Charli

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Sandra Day O'Connor: Breaking Gender Barriers in the United States Supreme Court

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Kate Maglio

Second Place: Chloroform: Blessing or a Curse in the 19th Century

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Neev Kanwar

Third Place: The World's Most Innocent Victims: Eunice Kennedy Shriver and the Special Olympics

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Daphne Brewer

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: Ford, Rockefeller, and Gandhi: Breaking Human Rights Barriers through Population Control, 1951-1977

School: Staples High School

Student: Ishan Prasad

Second Place: A Tale of Consumerism and Conformism: Too Many Barriers Broken?

School: The Taft School

Student: Felicia Wang

Third Place: An Amalgamation of Neoliberalism and Multilateralism: Restructuring the Global Financial Order

School: Conard High School

Students: Ryan Lafferty

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: A Tale of Two Countries: How Sputnik Sparked the Space Age

School: South Windsor High School

Students: Ria Saxena and Valli Pendyala

Second Place: The Rosenhan Experiment

School: Farmington High School

Students: Sara Holt, Lillian Yim, and Emily Tycz

Third Place: Medical Breakthrough of Anesthesia

School: New Britain High School

Students: Isabella Testanero, Javeria Jalil, and Martha Atakora

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: The Mother of Nature: Rachel Carson and the Groundbreaking Publication of 'Silent Spring'

School: Conard High School

Student: Andrew Maglio

Second Place: Gideon v Wainwright: Breaking the Judicial Barrier of the United States

School: Conard High School

Student: Kevin Shreenauth

Third Place: The Second Wave Feminists: Redefining Femininity

School: Farmington High School

Student: Veena Kodakirthi

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: Sandra Day O'Connor

School: South Windsor High School

Students: Megan LeMay and Sara Wills

Second Place: Martin Luther and the Protestant Reformation

School: New Britain High School

Students: Kelly Alape, Alyana Martinez, and Julissa Santiago

Third Place: Stonewall Inn

School: South Windsor High School

Students: Molly Cole and Natalie Carvajal

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: The Tuskegee Airmen: Soaring Through the Color Barrier

School: Conard High School

Student: Ethan Mathieu

Second Place: Breaking Barriers of the Cold War

School: New Britain High School

Student: Molly-Anne Alape

Third Place: Breaking Barriers in Deaf Education: Thomas Hopkins Gallaudet

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Student: JungJoo Kim

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: Opha May Johnson: The First Female Marine

School: New Britain High School

Students: Arthur Sanchez Leroux, Maya Kelly, and Adriana Gutowska

Second Place: Obergefell v. Hodge

School: New Britain High School

Students: Alyssa Velasquez and Jayden Burgos-Arnett

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: A Woman in Business

School: Conard High School

Student: Natalie Gavalis

Second Place: Breaking Barriers Across Time and Cultures Through Language

School: South Windsor High School

Student: Aicha Ly

Third Place: Breaking Barriers in Aviation – Igor Sikorsky

School: South Windsor High School

Student: Harish Prasad

Category: Senior Group Performance

First Place: John Winthrop: His impact on the Connecticut Witch Trials

School: Madina Academy

Students: Madina Saleh and Haneen Abuteen

Category: Senior Individual Performance

First Place: Breaking Illegal Surveillance: The Burglars Who Stole the Secrets of the FBI

School: South Windsor High School

Student: Iniya Raja

Second Place: Two Letters, One Syllable: Jeannette Rankin Breaks the Barrier of Dissent

School: Conard High School

Student: Lindsay Moynihan