

Connecticut History Day 2018 Hartford Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: Lion Gardiner: Reluctant Tactician of the Pequot War

School: Bristow Middle School

Student: August Kittleson

Second Place: From Compromise to Chaos: The Peloponnesian War

School: Tyrrell Middle School

Student: Youssef Macary

Third Place: Ecclesiastical Conflicts: From England to the American Colonies

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Akshat Juneja

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: Korematsu vs. The United States: The Fight for Japanese American Rights

School: Bristow Middle School

Students: Kate Sanderson, Miranda Scully, and Helen LaPointe

Second Place: Amistad: Justice for Slavery

School: Bristow Middle School

Students: Aaliska Sapkota, Tina Chen, and Anastasia Haubrich

Third Place: Conflict and Compromise of the Salem Witch Trials

School: Renzulli Academy

Students: Elhame Adam, Mikhaila Braye-Entsiwah, and Denise Morales-Gonzales

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: The Space Race: Conflict and Compromise

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Hugh Baldwin

Second Place: Lewis Hine: Capturing the Public's Heart and Exposing Child Exploitation

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Andrew Maglio

Third Place: Harriet Tubman: Addressing the Conflict of Slavery

School: Renzulli Academy

Student: Edward Braye-Entsiwah

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: Tale of Two Cities: The Atomic Bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki

School: HALS Academy

Students: Samuel Williams, Nasser Kassem, and Joseph Barbagallo

Second Place: Korematsu v. United States: A Conflict with Delayed Compromise

School: HALS Academy

Students: Randy Opoku, Jonathan Brown, and Damian Oduro

Third Place: Altruism: The Ideal Compromise

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Students: Cheili Bond and Grace Boulton

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: The Industrial Workers of the World - Conflicts and Compromises Through Strikes, Song, and Propaganda

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: John Haslun

Second Place: Capital Punishment in Connecticut: The Compromise Worth Life and Death

School: HALS Academy

Student: Daniel Torres

Third Place: Buck v. Bell: How the Strong Were Allowed to Fight the Weak

School: Bristow Middle School

Student: Christina Gomes

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: Conflict and Compromise: Cesar Chavez Boycotts for Workers' Rights

School: Renzulli Academy

Students: Cesar Canedo and Alano Oquendo

Second Place: The Lie of the Treaty of Versailles: How the Compromise Led to Conflict

School: CREC Public Safety Academy

Students: Landon Couture and Chris Laine

Third Place: The Disney Strike of 1941: Walt vs. The Screen Cartoonists Guild

School: HALS Academy

Students: Amelina Douangvongsa, Jane Gustafson, and Andrea Sims

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Don't Ask, Don't Tell: The Compromise That Led to Conflict

School: Renzulli Academy

Student: Naiyah McGlamery

Second Place: Treaty of Versailles

School: Rashad Thompson

Student: CREC Public Safety Academy

Third Place: Earl Lloyd and the Integration of Basketball

School: HALS Academy

Student: Brady Higgins

Category: Junior Group Performance

First Place: A Humanitarian Conflict - Anne Sullivan's Battle on Behalf of Society's Compromised People: The Disabled

School: Hillcrest Middle School

Students: Sai Kulkarni, Madhuvanthi Krishna, Anthony Amato

Second Place: A Peninsula in Conflict

School: CREC Montessori Magnet School

Students: Gianluca Dolzadelli, Brighton Smith, Phineas Semeraro, Xavier Desir, and Khalil Lavoix

Third Place: The Price Isn't Right

School: Classical Magnet

Students: Noah Ambrose and Josh Ambrose

Category: Junior Individual Performance

First Place: Hannah Bunce Watson and the Hartford Courant

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Marlena Pegolo

Second Place: A Denied Voice, Murasaki Shikibu Compromises

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Avery Bloom

Third Place: Ching Shih Challenges Many on Both Land and Sea

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Allie Sullivan

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: Connecticut: The Compromise State

School: Classical Magnet

Student: Nevan Carling

Second Place: Ruby Bridges: See a Problem, Make a Sacrifice, Change Lives

School: Farmington High School

Student: Rafaela Kottou

Third Place: Conflict and Compromise: The Civil Rights Act of 1964

School: Choate Rosemary Hall

Student: Ryan Cho

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: The Yalta Conference

School: Farmington High School

Students: Lillian Yim, Emily Tycz, and Sara Holt

Second Place: Operation Torch: Lighting Up The Way to Unification

School: Farmington High School

Students: Felicia Wang and Krithika Santhanam

Third Place: Otto Von Bismarck: Birthing a Nation

School: CREC Academy of Science and Innovation

Students: Kris Nasse and Gabe Kleszcz

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: The Iranian Hostage Crisis: America's First Conflict with the Middle East

School: Conard High School

Student: Rushil Yerrabelli

Second Place: The Thirty Years War: The Final Great Religious Conflict of the Western World

School: Classical Magnet

Student: Nathaniel Smith

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: The Path to the Capital

School: Academy of Science and Innovation

Students: Lacey Dargenio and Nadia Joseph

Second Place: The Scopes Trial: The Perennial Debate Between Science and Religion

School: Farmington High School

Student: Michelle Ni and Cindy Chen

Third Place: King Philip's War

School: Classical Magnet

Students: Stephen Babalola and Ian Oller

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: The Triangle Disaster: The Short-Term Conflict that Sparked a Long-Lasting Compromise

School: Conard High School

Student: Ryan Lafferty

Second Place: Prudence Crandall and the Black Law

School: Farmington High School

Student: Katrina Wiegmann

Third Place: The Treaty of Versailles: A Flawed Compromise

School: Conard High School

Student: Ethan Mathieu

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: The Smith Sisters

School: New Britain High School

Students: Victoria Farrell and Elizabeth Farrell

Second Place: Out of the Kitchen and Into the Polls: The Revolution for Women's Suffrage

School: Farmington High School

Students: Esther Ye, Alyssa Jackie, Aika Aussicker, and Justin Luong

Third Place: Cultural Conflict and Vietnam: Rock n' Roll

School: Academy of Science and Innovation

Students: Desiree Gerena and Luisa Corona

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Greensboro Four: Fighting Against Jim Crow Laws

School: Conard High School

Student: Brianna Bobo

Second Place: History is Written by the Defeated

School: Classical Magnet

Student: Jetta McPhee

Third Place: Bosnia and Herzegovina: The Forgotten Compromise

School: Academy of Science and Innovation

Student: Amina Feratovic

Category: Senior Group Performance

First Place: The Moral of Our Quarrel: MLK vs. Malcolm X

School: Classical Magnet

Students: Jarred Griffin and Parker Reeves

Category: Senior Individual Performance

First Place: When Refusing to Compromise Creates Conflict: Jane Addams and Woodrow Wilson Fight for Peace During World War I

School: Conard High School

Student: Lindsay Moynihan