

Connecticut History Day 2018 State Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: Caroline Ferriday and the Ravensbruck Rabbits

School: Fairfield Woods Middle School

Student: Lily Bolash

Second Place: Soviet Afghan War: A Compromise Becomes a Conflict

School: The Unquowa School

Student: Daniel Vash

Third Place: The Christmas Truce: A Calm Compromise During a Chaotic Conflict

School: JFK Middle School

Student: Karli Oppenheimer

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: The Struggle for Atomic Morality

School: Northwestern Regional 7

Students: Grace Falk and Tessa Goddu

Second Place: Tinker v. Des Moines

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Amelia Cox and Alena Gutierrez

Third Place: Fred Korematsu

School: Bristow Middle School

Student: Kate Sanderson, Miranda Scully, and Helen LaPointe

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: Lewis Hine: Capturing the Public's Heart and Exposing Child Exploitation

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Student: Andrew Maglio

Second Place: The Iran Hostage Crisis

School: Northwestern Regional 7

Student: Alessandra Lascari

Third Place: It's a Mad M.A.D. World, The Story of U.S. Senator Brien McMahon and the Atomic Energy Act of 1946

School: Talcott Mountain Academy

Student: T.Y. Andrews

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: Loving v. Virginia: How Loving Defeated Hating

School: Bedford Middle School

Students: Oliver Clachko, Alex Markus-Malone, Eli Shorrocks, and Liam Kelly

Second Place: Martha Minerva Franklin: Treating the Discrimination Disease

School: Timothy Edwards Middle School

Students: Iris Wen, Kavya Ramasamy, and Aricka Boosa

Third Place: The Connecticut Compromise: Making the United States United

School: Mansfield Middle School

Students: Matthew Billings-Chiu, Evan Bliven, and Anthony Song

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: Typhoid Mary

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Student: Hannah Robinson

Second Place: Unjust U.S.A.: The Forgotten Story of American Internment Camps

School: Talcott Mountain Academy

Student: Julian Kage

Third Place: The Economy Surrounding the Berlin Wall

School: Nathan Hale-Ray Middle School

Student: Mark Gilsenan

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: How The Treaty of Versailles Ended the Great War

School: Bedford Middle School

Students: Lyah Muktavaram, Jordan Chiu-Skow, Jason Chiu Skow, and Johann Kobetitsch

Second Place: “I Am Become Death, The Destroyer of Worlds”: Cuban Missile Crisis, 1962

School: Bedford Middle School

Students: Finnbar Kiely, Peter Moody, Maxwell Tanksley, Ishan Prasad, and Zachary Rybchin

Third Place: The Road to Extinction: The Conflicts of the Whaling Industry and the Balance of a Species

School: Memorial Middle School

Students: Julia Pellegrini and Isabella DeLeo

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: The Krug-Lewis Agreement: A Forced Compromise Transforms Care for Coal Miners and Rural America

School: St. Timothy Middle School

Student: Mia Porcello

Second Place: Parental Advisory: The Four Words that Changed Music

School: Rochambeau Middle School

Student: Meredith Griegel

Third Place: From Broken Glass to Open Arms

School: Rochambeau Middle School

Student: Katelyn Meyers

Category: Junior Group Performance

First Place: “From Sea to Shining Sea”: The Conflict Over the Fort Laramie Treaties That Compromised American Values

School: Pequot Homeschool

Students: Brooks Barry, Liv Bobby, Andre Mead, and Sebastian Zuba

Second Place: John Winthrop the Younger: Keeping the Peace During the Witchcraft Hysteria

School: Vernon Center Middle School

Students: Clarissa Halpryn and John Margelony

Third Place: Julia Butterfly Hill

School: Timothy Edwards Middle School

Students: Rosie Christophel and Anushri Sandeep

Category: Junior Individual Performance

First Place: When Compromise Isn't Enough: Maria Colon Sanchez and the Hartford Puerto Rican Community

School: Mansfield Middle School

Student: Emma Smith

Second Place: Marbury v. Madison: The Artful Compromise that Established the Power of the Constitution Through the Conflict Between the Judicial and Executive Branches

School: Hillcrest Middle School

Student: Neya Kidambi

Third Place: The Basketball War: A Conflict that Led to a Cultural Compromise

School: Timothy Edwards Middle School

Student: Iniya Raja

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: School Desegregation in Hartford, Connecticut: The Challenges of Implementation and Reform

School: Academy of Information Technology and Engineering

Student: Donia Elmansy

Second Place: A Case of Conflict and Compromise: United States v. The Amistad

School: Torrington High School

Student: David Chmielewski

Third Place: The Doklam Plateau and the Sino-Indian Border Standoff

School: Engineering and Science University Magnet School

Student: Prastik Mohanraj

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: New Haven Black Panther Trials

School: Pomperaug High School

Students: David Roper, Emmett Reilly, William Miller, and Griffin Wolf

Second Place: “The Week That Changed the World”: Nixon’s 1972 Trip to China

School: Weston High School

Students: David Tamburri and Beck Reiferson

Third Place: The Fundamental Orders of Connecticut: The First Constitution of America

School: Torrington High School

Students: David Teti and John McLaughlin

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: Don’t Get Hit: The Expansion of US Intelligence Power Post-9/11

School: Staples High School

Student: Victor de la Pena

Second Place: Sefardi

School: Amity High School

Student: Sam Farbman

Third Place: Iran: From Revolution to Evolution - A Story of Conflict in the Middle East

School: Stonington High School

Students: Lily Haghpassand

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: Nike Missile Sites: The National Security Measure that Sparked Conflict and Compromise

School: Staples High School

Students: Kathryn Enquist and Shea Curran

Second Place: The Magna Carta: The Compact from the Struggle Against Tyranny

School: Ellington High School

Student: Anthony Chamberlin, Sam Wan, Alex Slotter

Third Place: Athletic Social Activism: Exposing Barriers, Promoting Equality, Initiating Change

School: Staples High School

Students: Brianna Dwyer and Sophia Alfero

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: On the Brink: John F. Kennedy and the Cuban Missile Crisis

School: Conard High School

Student: Miles Brown

Second Place: The Dark Side of Compromise: How the Treaty of Versailles Gave Rise to Two Fascist Regimes

School: Simsbury High School

Student: Josh Picoult

Third Place: The Treaty of Versailles: A Flawed Compromise

School: Conard High School

Student: Ethan Mathieu

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: The Greenwich Women Face the Great War

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Sydney Harris and Sophia Fernandez

Second Place: Child Labor: The Conflict for Rights During the Industrial Revolution

School: High School in the Community

Students: Shakshi Patel, Hallie Hushion, and Johanyx Rodriguez

Third Place: Rationing America: A Food Shortage Conflict on the Homefront During World War 2

School: Pomperaug High School

Students: Caroline Parrott and Emma Williams

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: From Ladies to Lapins

School: Nonnewaug High School

Student: Lindsay Meyers

Second Place: Dump City

School: Daniel Hand High School

Student: Lauren Ozimek

Third Place: Sarah Pierce's Female Academy

School: The Gunnery

Student: Paige Moffat

Category: Senior Group Performance

First Place: Barbara McClintock: The Uncompromising Woman Who Jumped Over Conflict to Expand the Knowledge of the Genome

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Katherine Hurst, Nicole Wood, Sofia Dodaro, and Flora Dievenich Braes

Second Place: Society's Compromise is the Real Crime: The Rape of Recy Taylor

School: Greenwich High School

Students: Nina Hirai, Jody Bell, and Sophie Anderlind

Third Place: Research vs. Rights: The 1981 Springs Monkey Case that Launched PETA

School: Ellington High School

Students: Becca Beaulieu and Emma Babiec

Category: Senior Individual Performance

First Place: When Refusing to Compromise Creates Conflict: Jane Addams and Woodrow Wilson Fight for Peace During WWI

School: Conard High School

Student: Lindsay Moynihan

Second Place: The Pentagon Papers: An Internal Conflict, An External Compromise in American Ideals

School: Greenwich High School

Student: Emma Olmstead

Third Place: Theodore Roosevelt: Keeping the Peace

School: Daniel Hand High School

Student: Emily Baker