

Connecticut History Day 2020 Torrington Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: Beatrice Fox Auerbach: Breaking Barriers at G. Fox and Beyond School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School Student: Preston McNulty Socha

Second Place: The Remarkable Season of the Texas Western Miners
School: Northeast Middle School Student: Jonathan Casarola

Third Place: Womens Suffrage
School: Chippens Hill Middle School Student: Isaiah Monroe-Shaw

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: The Deafening Sound of Barriers Being Broken: The American School for the Deaf
School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School Students: Leah Glaspey and Nandini Shah

Second Place: Faithful Female Voices Break the Spirits
School: Memorial Middle School Students: Amelie Jose, Samantha Evans, Leah Joseph, and Katherine Vongsouvanh

Third Place: Rosie Cracks Barriers on the Homefront
School: Memorial Middle School Students: Katherine Kennon and Evelyn Chun

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: Samuel Colt: The Journey to Breaking Barriers and Changing America
School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School Student: Andrew Zhong

Second Place: Dial Painting Predicaments: The Radium Girls Breaking Barriers
School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School Student: Sarah Gerg

Third Place: Viewing Barbara Walters

School: Westside Middle School Academy Student: Jenna Saltzman

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: The Story of Stowe: Harriet Beecher Stowe Breaks Barriers of Slavery

School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School Students: Jwalitha Nareddy and Shivani Ainampudi

Second Place: 50th Anniversary: Women at Yale

School: Salisbury Central School Students: Treasa Connell and Annabel Prinz

Third Place: Igor Sikorsky: Breaking Barriers to Reach New Heights

School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School Students: Shanay Dave, Gautham Santhanam, and Aditya Nair

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: Isabella Beecher Hooker: Breaking Barriers for Women

School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School Student: Mikail Aliyev

Second Place: Space: To the Moon and Back

School: Westside Middle School Academy Student: Zachary Wright

Third Place: Flying High in History: Amelia Earhart

School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School Student: Jane Guay

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: Sesame Street

School: Salisbury Central School Students: Elinor Wolgemuth, Gabby Titone, Tess Marks, and Georgette Campagne Second Place: Chicago Freedom Movement School: Westside Middle School Academy Students: Aekom Diogun, Colin Gordon, and Xavier Going

Third Place: This Project Won't Put You To Sleep

School: Westside Middle School Academy Students: Emili Lopez-Gibbons, Chloe Djilani, and Ethan Kennedy

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Breaking the Wrong Barriers: The Kara Hultgreen Controversy School: Red Maple Academy Student: Kathryn Lucente

Second Place: Alice Cogswell: the Girl who Inspired the American School for the Deaf School: Chippens Hill Middle School Student: Eva Gammell

Third Place: World War II, Break the Gender Barrier in the military and work force School: Memorial Middle School Student: Mary Styblo

Category: Junior Group Performance

First Place: A Canterbury Tale: Defying Racial and Legal Barriers School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School Students: Abigail Langston, Anqi Hou, and Amelia Remo

Category: Junior Individual Performance

First Place: Thomas Cook: Breaking Barriers to the World of Travel School: Red Maple Academy Student: Jacob Lucente

Second Place: The Barriers P.T. Barnum Broke School: Irving A. Robbins Middle School Student: Gabriella Rand

Third Place: Sputnik 1 School: Greene-Hills School Student: Caitlyn Carbone

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: Broken Barriers: Russia's Aggression Toward Ukraine in the 20th Century School: Red Maple Academy Student: Dominic Lucente

Second Place: Brown v. board of ed

School: Torrington High School Student: Marbelyn Benavides

Third Place: Valentina Tereshkova: Breaking Barriers in Space

School: Brookfield High School Student: Katerina Anikeev

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: Breaking Barriers: The Danbury Railroad Station

School: Danbury High School Students: Valentina Ramos, Amy Cordova, Megan Bhatti, and Hibba Qureshi

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: Mahatma Gandhi – The Peaceful Protester

School: The Taft School Student: Anishka Perera

Second Place: Just Playing the Game: The Story of Women in Sports

School: Lewis S. Mills High School Student: Kaitlyn Bell

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: Breaking Barriers: The Danbury Fair

School: Danbury High School Students: Melissa Jimenez, Allyson Vecchia-Spooner, Caitlin Van Tronk, and Sarah Barta

Second Place: Broken Ties: Dalai Lama in Exile

School: Torrington High School Students: Joanna Jusup, Amelia Russell, and Jaiden Gombos

Third Place: King of the Court

School: Danbury High School Students: Juliana Wiseman, Riya Patel, and Kaya Fahsbender

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: Caroline Hewins: Opening the World of Libraries to Children School:

Chairvolotti Homeschool Student: Audrey Chairvolotti

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: Breaking the Ice: Welcoming Antarctica to the World

School: Danbury High School Students: Faith Thomas, Ana Dela Cruz, Sarah Hwang, and Laura Snow

Second Place: Breaking Barriers During the Kosovo War

School: Danbury High School Students: Arta Berisha and Patriot Berisha

Third Place: Exceeding Expectations: Women Conquering Space Exploration

School: Torrington High School Students: Leah Darby, Hannah Llewellyn, and Louise Leonard

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Australia's Discrimination Act: The Journey to Flourishing School:

Torrington High School Student: Lillith DaSilva-Martinez

Second Place: Roe v Wade

School: Torrington High School Student: Alexa Maniccia