Connecticut History Day is one of 58 affiliate programs of National History Day (NHD). CHD annually engages over 4,000 middle- and high-school students in historical research, interpretation, and creative expression through project based learning. The program seeks to bring students, teachers, museums, and scholars together to support young people as they engage in history. Led by the Connecticut Democracy Center, CHD is presented with major funding and partnership support from CT Humanities. Program support given by: the Upper Housatonic Valley National Heritage Area and New Haven Museum. Follow Connecticut History Day on Facebook, Instagram, or Twitter, or visit the program’s website at histordayct.org.
