

Connecticut History Day 2023 New Haven Regional Contest Results

Junior Division

Category: Junior Papers

First Place: Here, There and Everywhere: How the Beatles Reinvented Popular Music

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Azalea Deener

Second Place: Sor Juana Ines de la Cruz: The New World's First Feminist

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Sofia Janiga

Third Place: Korumatsu v US: The Plight of Japanese Americans During WW2

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Vincent Sze

Category: Junior Group Documentary

First Place: Gladys Tantaquidgeon

School: Memorial Middle School

Students: Jillian O'Connor, Payton Pentino, Marlo Gabriele, and Maria Bueno

Second Place: Julia Child: Crossing Frontiers One Recipe at a Time

School: Memorial Middle School

Students: Ryan Murray and Lexie Howe

Third Place: The Discovery of the Double Helix: A Genetic Revolution

School: Ellington Middle School

Students: Keshav Kannan and Shriya Kannan

Category: Junior Individual Documentary

First Place: Chicago Blues: The Musical Revolution

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Elliot Peaper

Second Place: The Graphical Revolution of the Early 1990's

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Henry Dunn

Third Place: America's 20th Century Frontier to Peace: Richard Nixon Goes to China

School: St. Rita School

Students: Peter Torello

Category: Junior Group Exhibit

First Place: How Has the Invention of Morse Code Impacted and Saved Lives?

School: King Philip Middle School

Students: Kayden Myrick, Maria Gurvich, and Aislinn Ziemba

Second Place: Doug Williams

School: ACES at Chase

Students: Erlin Odza and Juel Savoy

Third Place: The Undersea Frontier: History of the Submarine

School: Francis Walsh Intermediate School

Students: Evan Talmadge and Sebastian Kunst

Category: Junior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Second Wave: How the Women of the 1960s Cracked the Glass Ceiling of Sexism in Employment

School: Sedgwick Middle School

Students: Caroline Wentland

Second Place: The Shinkansen: The train that changed the world

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Emanuel Martinez-Quintero

Third Place: The Million Dollar Mermaid

School: Lyme-Old Lyme Middle School

Students: Grace Osborne

Category: Junior Individual Performance

First Place: The Power of Tap: Dancing Across Cultures

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Iris Baden-Eversman

Category: Junior Group Website

First Place: How did Marie's invention keep America safe?

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Allen Zhang and Akmal Samadi

Second Place: John Tyndall: Frontiers in The Greenhouse Effect

School: Memorial Middle School

Students: Kylee Deleo and Clara Proulx

Category: Junior Individual Website

First Place: Sally Ride

School: Rochambeau Middle School

Students: Averie Hartley

Second Place: Fritz Haber

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Naruna Vora Camp

Third Place: Stealth Bombers, GPS systems, Night Visions. How did the Gulf War Start a New Frontier in Military History

School: Worthington Hooker School

Students: Robert Huang

Senior Division

Category: Senior Papers

First Place: The Intimacies of Two Continents: Imperialism, Impressionism, and an Impossible Journey to a Frontier in Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: Manxi Han

Second Place: Foreign Mud: Frontier Politics and the Outbreak of the First Opium War

School: South Windsor High School

Students: Rishabh Mohapatra

Third Place: The Towering Frontier: Human Endeavor to Conquer the Highest Terrain, Mt. Everest

School: Choate Rosemary Hall

Students: Sophia Kim

Category: Senior Group Documentary

First Place: Fritz Haber: The Sins of the Father and The Dreams of the Scholar

School: South Windsor High School

Students: Jerome Nivano Arunkumar, Rohan Pruthi, Ryan Duong, and Advait Satish

Second Place: Frontiers of the Civil Rights: How the Freedom Riders challenged the status quo of segregation

School: High School in the Community

Students: Taylor Hargreaves and Kiley Monk

Category: Senior Individual Documentary

First Place: A Shot That Changed The World: The Smallpox Vaccine

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: Rahj Durant

Second Place: The Game, the Triumph, and the Lie: Problematizing the Oregon Trail

School: South Windsor High School

Students: Aarush Kalia

Third Place: Frontiers in Mental Health: How Clifford W. Beers Shifted Attitudes Towards Mental Health

School: High School in The Community

Students: Jonaily Colon

Category: Senior Group Exhibit

First Place: Frontiers in the Vietnam War: The Role of Geography and its impact on Tactics

School: High School in The Community

Students: Marbella Escobar Gonzalez and Yeilienys Ojeda

Second Place: Advancing Science and Society: Rosalind Franklin's Contribution to the Structure of DNA

School: Engineering-Science University Magnet School

Students: Mari Arnold and Temiladeoluwa Adeniran

Third Place: The Role of Operation Bootstrap on Puerto Rican Migration

School: High School in The Community

Students: Isabella Rivera and Nicole Tubac

Category: Senior Individual Exhibit

First Place: Facial Frontiers: Harold Gillies' Breakthroughs in Reconstructive Surgery during WWI

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: KeQing Tan

Second Place: Heliocentric Theory & The Frontiers of Science

School: High School in The Community

Students: Justin Welch

Third Place: Alan Turing Breaking Frontiers

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: Christopher Vera

Category: Senior Group Performance

First Place: Pay No Attention to the Lady Behind the Curtain: President Edith Wilson

School: John F. Kennedy Middle School

Students: Sophia Carrier and Kathia Diaz

Second Place: Tinker V. Des Moines: Frontiers in Freedom of Expression

School: High School in The Community

Students: Jazmin Rosario, Japhet Gonzalez, and Diana Robles

Category: Senior Individual Performance

First Place: "Mother Ella": How Ella T. Grasso's Leadership Pushed Frontiers in Connecticut History

School: High School in The Community

Students: Dailyn Andujar

Category: Senior Group Website

First Place: The Vietnam War Memorial: How Maya Lin Revolutionized Memorial Design

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: Sophia Zhang and Magda Lena Griffel

Second Place: Footsteps of an Empire: Frontiers of the Ancient World

School: Pomperaug Regional High School

Students: Owen Broadwater and Liam Quinn

Third Place: The Frontiers and Impact of the Mexican-American War

School: High School in The Community

Students: Scarlett Marin and Jocelys Perez

Category: Senior Individual Website

First Place: Amelia Earhart

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: Lucy Dunn

Second Place: Women roles during civil war

School: Wilbur Cross High School

Students: Danielle Duarte

Third Place: Frontiers in Kansas: How a Group of Connecticut Volunteers Played a Role in Ending Slavery

School: High School in The Community

Students: Jaden Davis